

This book was art directed by David Saylor. The art for both the jacket and the interior was created using pastels on toned printmaking paper. The text was set in 12-point Adobe Garamond, a typeface based on the sixteenth-century type designs of Claude Garamond, redrawn by Robert Slimbach in 1989. The book was typeset by Brad Walrod and was printed and bound at Quebecor World in Fairfield, Pennsylvania. The Managing Editor was Manuela Soares and the Manufacturing Director was Angela Biola.

HARRY POTTER AND THE PRISONER OF AZKABAN

WINNER OF THE WHITBREAD AWARD

"Isn't it reassuring that some things just get better and better? This is a fabulously entertaining read that will have Harry Potter fans cheering for more."

—School Library Journal

HARRY POTTER AND THE CHAMBER OF SECRETS

★ "Harry Potter's exploits during his second year at Hogwarts School for Witchcraft and Wizardry completely live up to the bewitching measure of Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone. The mystery, zany humor, student rivalry, and eccentric faculty. . . are as expertly crafted here as in the first book."

—Booklist, starred review

HARRY POTTER AND THE SORCERER'S STONE

"A charming, imaginative, magical confection of a novel." —Boston Globe

"Funny, moving, and impressive."

—The New York Times Book Review
